

The Four Career Questions Worksheet

Answer each of the four questions below by looking at the specific referenced sections of the Strong Profile and Interpretive Report. Review the report information and copy the phrases and descriptors that fit you.

Four Career Questions	Strong Results
What can I contribute? Profile, section 1, "Potential Skills" column, for your top Themes Interpretive Report, "Your General Occupational Themes" section, "Personal Descriptors" column; and "Your Similarity to Occupations" section, "Selected Knowledge, Skills, Abilities" column
What motivates me to do my best? Profile, section 1, "Values" column, for your top Themes; and section 4, "Your Personal Style Scale Preferences" Interpretive Report, "A Closer Look at Your General Occupational Themes" section, "Your Career Motivators" chart; and "Your Personal Style" section, "Your Personal Style Scale Preferences" chart
What exactly do I want to do? Profile, section 2, "Basic Interest Scales"; and section 3, "Your Top 10 Strong Occupations" Interpretive Report, "Your Basic Interests" section, "Typical Interests and Activities" column; and "Your Similarity to Occupations" section, "Typical Work Tasks" column
What department or organization do I want to work for? Profile, section 1, "Values" column, for your top Themes; section 2, "Basic Interest Scales" Interpretive Report, "Your General Occupational Themes" section, "Career Fields" and "Personal Descriptors" columns, for your top Themes (some of these may overlap with what you wrote for "What can I contribute?")		